

ENGLISH (B.A.)

The English Major centers on the critical study and interpretation of literature, language, and culture. Students study literature and other cultural products written in English, and develop their critical and aesthetic understanding through research and writing. The curriculum includes coursework in creative writing, film, and world literatures written in or translated into English.

The English Major requires a minimum of 36 credits or 12 courses, including one course required of all students, ENGL 300: Critical Approaches to English. The 12 courses taken must include:

- At least five courses in literature;
- At least one pre-1700 course, one pre-1800 course, one pre-1900 course, and one post-1900 course;
- At least one course in three out of the following four genres: poetry, fiction, drama, film;
- At least one course in each of the following areas: international issues, ethnic studies, women's and gender studies, class issues.

Students may choose 12-credit concentrations in Creative Writing (<http://catalog.montclair.edu/programs/english-creative-writing-concentration-ba/>) or Film Studies (<http://catalog.montclair.edu/programs/english-film-studies-concentration-ba/>), or no concentration at all.

120 credits of coursework is required for the baccalaureate degree with a minimum 2.0 overall GPA, and a minimum 2.0 major GPA.

(See program guides for specific requirement details.)
