

MUSIC MINOR

The music minor is, for the foreseeable future, available only to those students who have already completed most of the coursework, i.e., former music majors who have changed their major after a year or more of study in music. The School of Music is not able to offer enough seats in the required classes to accommodate the number of students wishing to pursue the minor. However, we do invite all students to participate in the MUGN classes that are offered each semester; as well as MUPR 100 and MUPR 103, voice and piano classes. We also invite participation in our large ensembles, Chorale (MUEN 100), the Concert Bands (MUEN 120), or Orchestra (MUEN 110), all of which require an audition for participation; or Campus Band (MUEN 120 03) and a Pep Band (not-for credit, plays for athletic events) that can be taken without audition.

The Cali School presents over 300 performances every year (<https://www.montclair.edu/john-j-cali-school-of-music/about-the-cali-school/performing-ensembles/concerts-events/>) as well as an Immersive Residency program that brings guest musicians from all musical genres to the campus for a week to perform and to work with students in music classes and in other classes across the campus. Most of these events are open to all students on campus. The most current information about those activities can be found on this website: <https://www.montclair.edu/john-j-cali-school-of-music/cali-residencies/>
